

I am concerned that we will be losing a radio station if you expand the LPFM service. I listen to AIR 1, 98.7 daily. It is a station that our whole family listens to. The music is wonderful and there is news about interests we have that other stations do not talk about. If our community loses this station, we would lose a valuable source of inspiration and information.